5. March Elections
The Election Committee developed a timeline for voting for the elections and are on schedule. The department chairs were prompt in supplying the names of the department representatives. A memo was sent to the division Deans on February 20 asking for the candidates for the division representative positions. The deadline is March 10, which is also the deadline for the Senate President Petitions. The online voting will take place from March 15 through March 20.

6. Senate Bank Account
R. Schlichter and C. McKinney reported that the original monies were for scholarships. They recommended that the division deans recommend one or more students from each department in their division and the Senate choose one person from each division to receive a one-time scholarship. The candidates should have a 3.0 GPA and have completed 30 credit hours. Developmental classes would not count in the credit hours. The Senate accepted this report. After discussion, the Senate voted to use the existing Scholarship Committee to choose the recipients rather than a Senate committee.

Members are James Foley, Chand Wije, Barbara Rosenborough, Pat Nozinich, Mary McGarrh, Shayla Hill, and Lilliette Smith, chair. By March 15 employees will receive personal data sheets which should be checked carefully and returned by March 22. Open forums will be held to answer questions about the process. The goal will be to bring individuals to the mid-point. The Rockmore study is available in the library. Interested faculty members should look in the index for classification guidelines and look for faculty pay survey results by academic discipline.

2. SEC Meeting with President Essex
S. Haley reported that faculty should receive a 3% (2% plus a one-time 1% from the state) raise with another 3% going toward the salary equity study. This must go to TBR by April 5 and should be approved in September. It should be retroactive to July 1.

3. Senate Goals for Next Year
The Senate’s priority for next year is to make the Senate relevant to faculty concerns and to keep faculty informed. It was also suggested that new faculty members be informed of Senate activities.
